

Moon Song

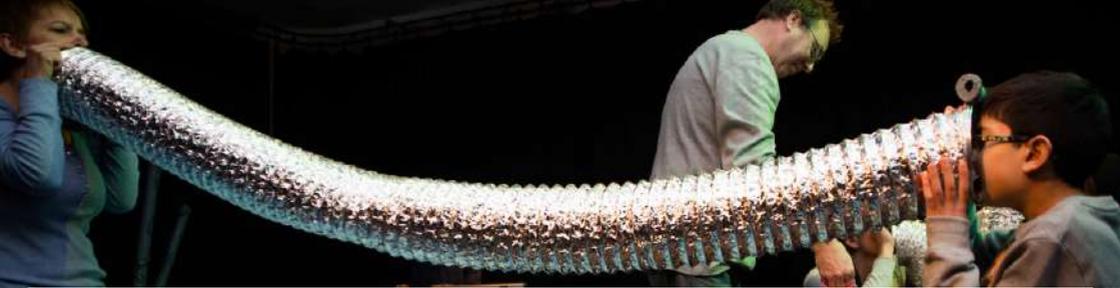

A production designed for young AS audiences

“Powerful, emotional, a pleasure to have been able to watch and be a part of. The interaction was exceptional and the children’s engagement was fabulous to watch”

Andrea Sanford, Redgate School

Touring to schools nationwide 4 - 22 March 2019

The Story

Our audience enters the performance space to relaxing music where they meet a girl called Megan. Megan falls asleep and begins to dream – anything can happen in her dreams. She flies in rocket to the moon. On her journey, she encounters comets, shooting stars and silvery tube creatures before the dream ends and she wakes up.

Moon Song has been carefully designed to accommodate whichever level of AS students you have in your school. With haunting music and Bamboozle's trademark interactive style, Moon Song seeks to enchant and engage students with a patient mix of interaction and invitation.

About Bamboozle

Bamboozle is a theatre company with over 20 years' experience in developing and delivering world-class multi-sensory theatre for children who have learning disabilities, and for children who are on the autistic spectrum.

Our team of Bamboozle performers are hugely experienced in interacting with students who have a variety of complex needs.

Our autism specific productions

Moon Song is a performance workshop which has been designed to accommodate the wide range of abilities within the autism spectrum. Our continuing research into performance for AS students has indicated there is a need for a performance to be accessible for all levels of autistic students.

We provide up to 4 x 40 minute performances throughout the school day, each catering for groups of up to 6 pupils and their teachers / carers. This ensures that our team of four performers can cater for children's individual access needs and provide high quality, focused interaction. For the very hardest to reach students, we can accommodate 4 at a time to give a ratio of 1:1 with our team. This show has been designed for the 6 - 14 yrs age range.

Booking fee: £1,195. Limited dates available! To register your interest, please email jade@bamboozletheatre.co.uk, or call us on 0116 255 2065.
